DOCKET NO.: 04CR10160 WGY 3-48

FILED
CLERK'S OFFICE
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASS.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA )
V. )
ANSELMO DOMINGUEZ )

MOTION TO DISMISS

Now comes Anselmo Dominguez and moves this Honorable Court to dismiss the indictment now pending against him.

In support of the foregoing, the defendant states that the prosecution has failed to disclose material, exculpatory evidence, in a timely fashion, before trial.

Specifically, defense counsel was only recently apprised of various representations made to the informant in this case. These representations would lead a reasonable person to believe that the government would provide aid or assistance to him in connection with his desire to obtain an S-Visa. In addition, defense counsel was only recently provided with evidence of prior inconsistent statements made by the same informant.

These statements relate to a material issue in the case and were never previously provided to defense counsel.

Respectfully submitted,
Anselmo Dominguez,
By his attorney

Re: United States v. Anselmo Dominguez
04-CR-10160 WGY

Dear John:

Enclosed are additional toll records I recently received, a DEA 6 prepared yesterday on June 2, 2005, as well as a copy of N-65 which you have already received. Also, enclosed are copies of finalized transcripts you have already received; however, call 5500 had a typographical error and the correct time is 8:30 PM; call 5261, line 27 has also been corrected. Moreover, as per your request, I have inquired with the case agent concerning any additional benefit promised to the CW other than what is in the plea agreement; the case agent informs me that while he in no way promised the benefit of an S-Visa, he agreed to look into the process for the CW.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions at (617) 748-3183. Thank you in advance for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

CYNTHIA W. LIE
Assistant U.S. Attorney

10. Report Re: Proffer of Juan ROSARIO on 06-02-2005

DETAILS

- On June 6, 2005, SA Christian Brackett, AUSA Cynthia Lie and AUSA Jennifer Zacks met with Juan ROSARIO at the United States Attorney's Office in Boston, MA to prepare for an upcoming trial. During the meeting, SA Brackett played several telephone conversations for ROSARIO, which were recorded during a wire intercept over telephone number 917-912-9106 between February and March 2004. While listening to the conversations, ROSARIO reviewed transcripts that were prepared of the calls and was asked whether they were accurate.
- After listening to call #5261 and reviewing the transcript, ROSARIO stated that line #27 of the transcript, which read "Tres medios, muchacho, de esos" (translated to "three halves, man of those ones") was not correct. ROSARIO stated that during this part of the conversation he said, "De medio, muchacho de eso", (which translates to "half of one of those guys"). ROSARIO stated that during the call, "half of one of those guys" was a coded reference to half a kilogram of cocaine.
- While being questioned about the calls that he had listened to, ROSARIO stated that he engaged in approximately 5 prior cocaine transactions with DOMINGUEZ. In response to this, SA Brackett, AUSA Lie and AUSA Zacks questioned ROSARIO about why he previously stated he only engaged in 2 to 3 cocaine transactions with DOMINGUEZ. ROSARIO stated that at the time he only remembered those deals but after listening to the calls and reviewing evidence he remembered engaging in additional transactions with DOMINGUEZ. ROSARIO believes that he previously engaged in one transaction with DOMINGUEZ for a kilogram of cocaine and the rest of the transactions were for a  $\frac{1}{2}$  kilogram.
